Alliance of independent firms

Professional solutions for a global world

We live in a globalised world, and consequently, many of our clients have professional connections with other countries. Many SMEs have needs of professional services abroad, either by investments through its subsidiaries, or by any other form of business relationships. As a consequence of that, you never know when it may be essential to have advice and support of a professional from other country.

This is extremely valuable when you need to have a guarantee of a trusted advisor.

The solution is ANTEA. An Alliance of Independents Firms established with the aim of organizing and promoting a wide association of firms cooperating to provide our clients the best possible service in their international needs.

Members

Moving for you

Qualification and experience of our members are the key of your success. We have strong professional requirements and peer review systems for membership to ensure a high level of quality in the group.

A further essential part of our strategy is the sharing of methodologies. As a consequence top efficient methodology has been developed and it is shared on the group. ANTEA provides technical support to improve quality. Our conferences and training sessions help our members to understand international solutions. We believe in our vision: improving by sharing.
